

"Paris pour l'Emploi": Potel et Chabot on the lookout for new talents.

Paris, 3 October 2012 – A key reference in French gastronomy, the Parisian group Potel et Chabot will take part in the "Paris pour l'Emploi" recruitment forum to be held on 4 and 5 October. The aim is to meet the employees who will be part of the Company's future expansion.

The Potel et Chabot Group already has more than 600 full-time employees in the capital, where its kitchens, head office and five reception venues are based.

Using its unique expertise Potel et Chabot organises more than 7,000 receptions each year in France and abroad. The Company recruits dozens of new employees every year in all the different trades; chefs, pastry chefs, bakers, technicians, drivers, receptionists, sales representatives, florists, sculptors, decorators, etc.

Potel et Chabot's participation in the "Paris pour l'Emploi" forum illustrates the Group's dynamism and desire to create jobs in the capital.

About Potel et Chabot:

Based in Paris, the Mediterranean and Aquitaine regions and recently established in Switzerland, Potel et Chabot continues to expand in France and abroad. For private, professional, sports, cultural or associative events, this ambassador of the French art de vivre draws upon the talent of 600 to 1,500 professionals in busy periods. With a history going back two hundred years of successfully rising to challenges, Potel et Chabot has been named an "Entreprise du Patrimoine Vivant" (Living Heritage Company).

Other news:

This Sunday, 7 October, our teams will be at work to bring the prestigious guests at the Qatar Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe Village d'honneur the very best of French gastronomy.
